This Edition contains the Routes to upwards of NINE THOUSAND Places, which have never been given in any Work of a similar Description; being a complete Directory to every Parish situate out of the Line of the Direct and Cross Roads throughout England and Wales.

To face the Title.

CARY's
NEW ITINERARY: OR, AN ACCURATE DELINEATION
OF THE
GREAT ROADS,
Both DIRECT and CROSS throughout
ENGLAND AND WALES:
With many of the Principal Roads in SCOTLAND.
From an ACTUAL ADMEASUREMENT by JOHN CARY:
Made by COMMAND of his Majesty's Postmaster General,
FOR OFFICIAL PURPOSES:
Under the Direction and Inspection of
THOMAS HASKER Esq.r
Surveyor and Superintendant of the Mail Coaches.

This WORK shows the IMMEDIATE ROUTE from the METROPOLIS to all parts of ENGLAND and WALES:
AND
From Town to Town in every direction, distinguishing also,
THE
CITIES, MARKET, BOROUGH AND CORPORATE TOWNS:
And those at which the ASSIZES are held and gives the time of the MAILS ARRIVAL and DEPARTURE from each. Describes the Line of the Navigable Canals and the Course of the Rivers passed over.
The Number of Houses and Inhabitants contained in each Town.
And those INNS which supply Post Horses and Carriages.

ALSO

The INNS throughout the METROPOLIS, from which the MAIL And STAGE COACHES go, their time of departure, & the ROUTE they severally take.
The NOBLEMEN and GENTLEMEN'S SEATS situate near the Roads.
A List of the PACKET BOATS, and their Time of sailing; COPIOUS INDEXES.
Maps of the Isle of Wight, Environs of London, Bath, Brighton, Margate, & Cheltenham, & a large

In Books which are published as Guides to Travellers, Accuracy must ever be regarded as the principal object; the Proprietor therefore thinks it incumbent upon him to state the Authorities under which this Itinerary was first published. It might, perhaps, be sufficient to say, that it was brought forward under the sanction of His Majesty's Postmaster General: but he cannot avail himself of such an indulgence without noticing the circumstances which procured him that very honourable patronage.

Having had it in command from the Postmaster General to make a Survey, under the direction of Mr. Hasker, Surveyor and Superintendant of the Mail Coaches, of all the principal Roads throughout the kingdom, for official purposes, the accuracy of which (as required by an Act of Queen Anne, for all Roads measured on account of the General Post Office) is attested on the oaths of the several Surveyors employed, it was deemed to be a Work of such utility to the Public, that it ought not to be withheld; as, from the precision with which it was executed, much benefit might accrue to the Traveller; and as the distances on those Roads were planned from one stationary object to another, it would enable him to determine, beyond dispute, the exact length of his stages.

Extensive as was this Survey, it was nevertheless considered not to embrace the whole of those Roads to which the Traveller might wish occasionally to refer; therefore the Proprietor has, with great industry and care, selected from the County Surveys such other Roads as appeared to him essential, the distances on which, although not regulated by his own Survey, and, of course, not calculated from one stationary mark to another, yet he has every reason to believe are faithful, the whole being verified by the different Postmasters throughout the kingdom, and officially communicated by letter to Francis Freeling, Esq. Secretary to the General Post Office, and Thomas Hasker, Esq. Superintendant of the Mail Coaches, and by them forwarded to the Author. Through the same channel he also received a List of such Inns as supply Post Horses and Carriages (which are added at the end of each Route), Seats, &c. &c.

FIFTH EDITION.

ANXIOUS to preserve the good opinion of the Public, the Proprietor has used his utmost endeavours to correct those errors to which a publication of this description must always be liable; and he has so arranged the Remarks which accompany the Roads, as that they and the Route to which they refer, present themselves to the eye of the reader at the same time.

To the Population, and Number of Houses in each Town, given from the returns made to Parliament—the Time of the Mail's Arrival at and Departure from each Town—the specification of the corporate Towns, and of those at which the Assizes are held—the Course of the Rivers crossed on the Routes, and the Line of the navigable Canals, describing their length, and showing the places through which they pass—the Inns on the road which supply Post Horses and Carriages; also, those Inns in the Metropolis whence the Mail and Stage Coaches depart (showing the Route they take by reference to the Itinerary; the Time of their Departure from London, and Arrival at their respective Inns in the Country; likewise the Time of their Departure thence, and Arrival in Town)—several additional Cross Roads—the Circuits of the Judges—the Rates of Postage in Great Britain—a List of the Stages going from London to the circumjacent Villages, &c.—with Maps of the Isle of Wight, the Environs of London, Bath, Brighton, Margate, and Cheltenham, is made the following

IMPORTANT ADDITION:

Routes to upwards of Nine Thousand Places, lying off from the main Roads, and which will not be found in any other work of this description.

SIXTH EDITION.

THE approbation of the Public, testified by the rapid sale of the preceding Editions, is a source of pleasing satisfaction to the Author. He once more tenders his grateful acknowledgments for the very flattering patronage which he has received.

A new impression of the ITINERARY being called for, it is deemed necessary to state that the whole work has been revised with care and diligence; a few new Roads, Direct as well as Cross, have been added; great pains have been taken to render the account of the Gentlemen's Seats correct to the present period; the Population of the Towns, &c. is given according to the last returns made to Parliament (in 1811); and wherever an improvement, either important or minute, has presented itself, or been suggested by friends, it has been adopted.

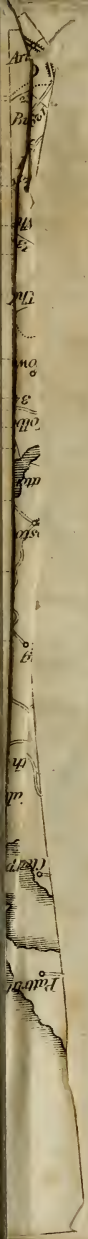
A NEW MAP OF ENGLAND and WALES, ADAPTED TO CARY'S NEW ITINERARY, SHEWING the Whole of the Roads Direct & Cross CONTAINED In that Work

British Statute Miles

Direct Roads ——— Mail ——— Cross Roads

Note The figures added to the Roads shew the route wherein they are described

London Published as the Act directs Jan.y 1.st 1798 by Cary Engraver & Map seller Strand



DIRECT ROADS.

That the Distances may correspond as nearly as possible with the Milestones on these Roads, they are reckoned from the customary Standards.

At the conclusion of each Route, where the length is such as to render it useful, a Return Route is added, exhibiting at one view the immediate distance from stage to stage, without the trouble of subtracting; to which method of calculation the Traveller would otherwise find it necessary to resort. The reckoning on this Back Route is also continued to the General Post Office, for the purpose of preserving the plan of the First Edition to those who may consider it essential.

CROSS ROADS.

To this part of the Work great Additions have also been made, and numerous Roads introduced, which are not described in any other publication of this nature.—The INDEX to these Roads is likewise so arranged as to afford an easy and direct reference to each Route.

SEATS.

The Proprietor has to acknowledge infinite obligations to his Friends for numerous Additions and Corrections, which they have kindly communicated, and which have enabled him to extend his List of Seats, and render it as perfect as the nature of the Work will admit; but as this part of the Publication is necessarily liable to some inaccuracies, even during its printing, he hopes that, where any errors may be perceived, they will not be imputed to negligence, as the utmost care has been taken to render the List correct; and he earnestly entreats those who may do him the honour of making this Book their travelling Companion, that they will have the goodness to transmit any additional information for the improvement of the work; and their communications shall be carefully attended to and gratefully acknowledged. A full and complete Index to the Seats is given at the end of the Work, with particular reference to the page where they are noticed.

MAP.

The Map of England and Wales, which accompanies, has been executed with the utmost care and attention, and exhibits the whole of the Roads contained in this Work, particularly describing those on which the Mail Coaches travel.

Figures of Reference are added to the Cross Roads, corresponding with the number of the Route wherein they are described; thus affording an additional Index to those Roads, and giving facility to the Traveller in tracing his Route in every direction, and to any extent.

Surveyors employed in measuring the Roads described in this Work.

JOHN BURTON, Lancaster.
JOSEPH SINGER, Littletown, Devon.
L. HEBERT, Strand.

The Measurements, which are taken in miles and furlongs, are arranged in columns; the first and second giving the distance from one City, Town, or Village, to the next; the third and fourth, the number of miles from the commencement of the Road.

Example.—Page 3.

	M	F	M	F
To Shooter's Hill	—	—	8	1
From Shooter's Hill to Welling	2	1	10	2
——————————— Crayford	2	5	12	7
——————————— Dartford—Bull Inn	1	7	14	6

Thus, the distance is given for Shooter's Hill in the third and fourth columns, eight miles one furlong; and in the continuation of the Road to Dartford you find the measurement to that place from London to be fourteen miles six furlongs.

General Directions for tracing the Roads.

Suppose you want the Road from London to Doncaster—look for the name of that place in the Index to the Direct Roads from London, and the figure opposite to it (351) refers to the page in which is that part of the Road containing Doncaster, though the description of the Road in which it is situated (being that from London to Carlisle and Glasgow) begins in page 343, and ends in page 360.

In describing the lesser Roads branching from the greater, the last remarkable place on the great Road, or the spot where the lesser turns off, is first given, with a reference to the page in which you will find the Road so far as to that place; and afterwards the Branch is continued: as, for instance, to find the Road from London to Weymouth, the Index refers you for Weymouth to page 84, where you find it in the following form, viz.

	M	F	M	F
To Dorchester, p. 56	—	—	119	6
Brodeway	4	7	124	5
Melcomb Regis	2	5	127	2
Weymouth	—	4	127	6

By which it appears you are referred to page 56 for this Road as far as Dorchester (the last remarkable place on the great Road); and the remainder of the Road to Weymouth is given after the above form in page 84, as directed by the Index. These References are made use of in order to prevent the numberless repetitions, which would otherwise unavoidably occur, and thereby swell the Book to an inconvenient size.

The Index to the Cross Roads, it is conceived, is so copious and explicit, as to require no further explanation than what is given at the beginning of it.

Having before observed how much he should feel obliged to those Travellers who would do him the favour to communicate notice of any Error which they may occasionally detect in this Work, it may appear intrusive again to solicit their attention; but the Proprietor hopes his anxiety will be excused, in consideration of the advantage which the Public must feel, in having a Work of this nature correct in all its parts, and that to render it so exceeds the possibility of individual exertion—In the performance of this task, he has used his utmost endeavours to make his Book complete, and flatters himself, that in the Delineation of the Roads few errors will be found; but it scarcely needs remark, that in giving the numerous Seats which this Work describes, some mistakes must occur, to rectify which, he takes the liberty of observing, that nothing can so effectually contribute, as the information of the intelligent Traveller, whose assistance he most particularly requests; as also that of Gentlemen of local information, to whom he would consider himself highly indebted for their communications, to which the utmost attention will be paid.

It would add to the obligation, if Gentlemen, when they communicate information, would have the goodness to sign their Name and Address, as it frequently happens that further explanation is necessary, and it would remove any doubt as to authenticity.

TABLES, shewing the immediate Route from the Metropolis to upwards of 9,000 Places lying off from the Main Roads throughout ENGLAND and WALES.

THE following Tables are intended to shew the immediate Route from the Metropolis to those places which, lying off from the Main Road, could not be described in the body of the work. References are added shewing the Route to be taken by the Traveller, as also the place on the road nearest to that which is sought.

EXAMPLE :—Suppose you want the Road from London to Abbenhall,—refer for that place in this Table, and you will find it described 2 mls. l (2 miles to the left) of Longhope, which place, as arranged in the next column, will be found in page 196, and your Route will therefore be directed through Uxbridge, Beaconsfield, High Wycombe, Oxford, Witney, Northleach, Cheltenham, and Gloucester, to Longhope, where, as expressed in the Table, you turn to the left, and at about the distance of 2 miles is situate Abbenhall.

Note. In selecting the roads to which the references are made, we have considered it an accommodation to select those (when it could be done) on which stage-coaches travel—it may also be proper to observe that where the traveller may require to be forwarded by Post chaise, he must oftentimes stop short of our reference, or otherwise proceed to the next stage beyond it—as in the above example, he must either stop at Gloucester, or proceed to Ross, the next stage from Gloucester.

The direction r and l are not to be understood always to mean directly right and left of the places referred to, but right and left of the road on which you are travelling, as the places sought will in many instances lie forward, or obliquely, of the reference, in a direction thus, in such case, we have signified the same by adding an o to the letters r and l.—Thus r. o. right oblique, l. o. left oblique.

Coach Directory.

INDEX OF PLACES

WHICH OCCUR IN THE ROUTES OF THE DIFFERENT COACHES GOING FROM THE METROPOLIS.

Places printed in the Roman Character are those through which Coaches pass in the Prosecution of their Journey to some Town more remote from the Metropolis.

The Italic Character denotes that there are Coaches whose Journeys terminate at the Place; the References to such Coaches are printed within Brackets []: where other Figures follow those included within the Brackets, they relate to Coaches which pass through the Place.

M. following the Figure of Reference, signifies the Mail Coach.

The Numbers opposite the Name of each Place correspond with those annexed to the Coaches in the List of Inns which immediately succeeds this Index.

EXAMPLE.

Supposing a Conveyance to Abberford to be wanted—see in this Index the Name of Abberford, and the Numbers opposite, 176, 395, 520;—turn to either of these Numbers in the List of Inns, where will be found the Coach which passes through that Place; viz. [176], Aberdeen and Edinburgh Coach, Bull and Mouth Inn; &c. &c.

Coach Directory.

A LIST

OF ALL THE

INNS THROUGHOUT THE METROPOLIS

FROM WHICH THE

MAIL AND OTHER STAGE COACHES DEPART:

Showing the Route they take by Reference to the ITINERARY; the Time of their Departure from London, and Arrival at their respective Inns in the Country; likewise the Time of their Departure thence, and Arrival in Town.

 The following List has been examined by the respective Proprietors, and by them reported correct.—The Publisher, nevertheless, thinks it proper to observe, that notwithstanding the care which he has taken to avoid every species of error, it will sometimes happen, from a change of Route, &c. that an inaccuracy may occur; he therefore suggests the propriety of such inquiry at the Inn as may be thought necessary, in order to secure the Traveller from mistake.

Cities and Market Towns are printed in Capital Letters:—Cities are besides distinguished by a [c] prefixed, Borough Towns by a [b], and Towns and Places where Post Offices or Receiving Houses are established, by a [p].

H. and I. for Houses and Inhabitants: the Figures added thereto express the Number of each which the Place contains, agreeably to the Population Act of 1811.

The [x] affixed to the Names of Places denotes that in or near them there is some remarkable Object, which is noticed in the Observations accompanying the Route.

The Word in Italic immediately following the Place to which the Measurement is directed, implies the Point opposite to which it is given.

Roads described as diverging from the main Route are to be considered as Turnpike Roads leading to the Places to which they are directed, unless otherwise expressed.

N. B. The Inns at the different Places on each Road which supply Post Horses and Carriages are selected, and given at the End of every Route; but the Arrangement of them is not intended to convey any Preference.

On the Map which accompanies this Work, are also distinguished those Roads on which the Mail Coaches travel; and to the Cross Roads Figures are added, denoting the Route wherein they occur.

Exeter. The Circumference of this City is about 3 Miles; it is a Bishop's See, to which the County of Cornwall is annexed; and has a Cathedral, 15 Churches within the Walls, and 3 without; 5 Dissenting Meeting Houses, a Quakers', and a Jews' Synagogue. The Cathedral is a magnificent Pile; it was begun in 932, in the Reign of Athelstan, and was carried on under various Bishops for 400 Years, before it was completed: it has a most beautiful modern painted Glass Window over the west Door; the east Window exhibits a fine Specimen of the ancient Art of staining Glass. The Sessions House is an elegant new Building, in which the Assizes, &c. are held; adjoining is a fine Saxon Castle, called Rougemont. Devon and Exeter Hospital, and the Asylum for Lunatics, are fine Structures; as also the new Bridge over the Exe. On the Quay are a hand some commodious Custom-house and other public Buildings.

1 M. beyond Exeter, on l. is Barley House, Captain Graves; and on r. are Cleave, Thos. Northmore, Esq.; and Haccombe House, W. Lee, Esq.

The following circuitous Route (with Remarks) is communicated to us by a Resident, as a most delightful Ride for those who wish to see the Beauties of the Isle of Wight.

From Ryde to St. John's 1 M.; by Westbrook to the Priory 3 M.; to St. Helen's 1 M.; over St. Helen's Green, and North Marsh, to Brading 4 M.; over Garbridge, Sandown Level, and Royal Heath, to Shanklin, 4 M.; and by Luccomb to Bonchurch 2 M.; to Steephill 1 M.; St. Lawrence 1 M.; by the Church, the left Hand Road immediately under the Cliffs, to Mirables, 1½ M.; and to Niton, 1½; to Knowles and Pitlands. Turn at the Direction to the left instead of the right Hand (which takes you to Niton), over St. Catherine's Down to Chale, 2 M.; cross Chale Green to Shorewell, 4½ M.; to Brixton, 2 M.; Mottiston, 2 M.; by Brook House and Church, and Shalcomb Farm, to Thorley, 3 M.; to Yarmouth 2 M. If to the Needles, take the first Turning on the left beyond Brook Church over Compton Down and Aston Down, to Freshwater Gate Inn, and at the Back of the Inn over the Cliffs between the Beacon and Warren House to the Lighthouse at the Needles.

From Shorewell a beautiful Bridle Road goes all the Way over Brixton, Shalcomb, Tapnel, and Aston Downs, in a direct Line to Freshwater Gate Inn, the Needles, and Yarmouth.

The following Gentlemen's Seats and romantic Scenery are very highly deserving the Notice of the picturesque Traveller:

By Yaverland, Hermit's Hole, a curious Cavity in the Culvers Cliff immediately over the Sea. By Sandown Level, the Fort.

At Shanklin, the Chine, a remarkably beautiful Chasm, with a Fall of Water.

By Luccomb, the Chine, next the Sea, singularly interesting for its Wildness.

At St. Lawrence, the highly-finished Cottage of the late Sir Richard Worsley, ornamented with a Vineyard, now the Hon. C. A. Pelham.

Mirables is wonderfully romantic, and singularly interesting for its very picturesque Walks, and bold uninterrupted Views of the Ocean, on which is closely situated the Cottage of G. Arnold, Esq.: Knowles and Pitlands, rude tremendous rocky Scenery, with fine Water breaking immediately from under the stupendous Cliffs of St. Catherine's, rendered singularly awful by its recent violent Convulsions of the whole surrounding Rocks and Soil for a considerable Extent, having destroyed a Cottage, and overthrown several immense Rocks.

At Aston, Capt. Urry's; and at Yarmouth another Seat of Capt. Urry's.

½ M. beyond Knowles and Pitlands is Black Gang, a tremendous Chasm.

Places of Accommodation in this Route: Ventnor near Steephill, the New Inn. Niton, the W. Lion. Brixton, the New Inn. Freshwater Gate Inn.

Bristol is situated on the Rivers Avon and Frome; it is a City and County of itself, and King Henry VIII. made it a Bishopric. The Interior of the City is close, but in the Suburbs and external Parts are elegant and spacious Buildings. Carts are not admitted in the Streets, for fear of damaging the Arches of the Vaults, &c. made under-ground for conveying the Soil into the Rivers; and on this Account every Thing is carried by Sledges. From Redcliffe Parade is a most beautiful View of the surrounding Country. It has a very extensive Quay, and a Dock, which will contain ten Sail of large Vessels; and another of an inferior Size. The Cathedral was founded in 1140. The Hot Wells are 1 M. below the City, close by the River; their Waters are reckoned specific for the Diabetes, phthisical, scorbutic, and inflammatory Disorders.

Westbury, near, on l. is Cote House, John Wedgewood, Esq.; and 1 M. on l. Blaze Castle, J. P. Harford, Esq.

Westbury, about 2 M. on l. King's Weston, Lord De Clifford; and near it, at Henbury, T. Daniel, Esq.

Cat's Ash, near on l. is Llanwarren, Sir R. Salusbury, Bart.; and between Christ Church and Newport, on l. is Maindee, W. Kemeys, Esq.

Newport, the Monmouth Canal, where is its Basin, which connects with the Usk R. and through its Channel unites the Navigation with the Severn. It has two Branches—the Pontypool, to which Town it goes, and near to it is joined with the Brecknock Canal (whose Course is by Abergavenny and along by the Side of the R. Usk to the Town of Brecon) and the Crumlin, which passes by Risca to Crumlin Bridge. Length of the Pontypool Branch 11 M. falls 447 Feet; Crumlin Branch 11 M. 5 F. falls 365 Feet: Length of the Brecknock 37 M. 7 F.

2½ M. from Newport, on l. is Tredegar, Sir Charles Morgan, Bart.

About 3 M. on r. of St. Mellon's is Ruppera House, — Morgan, Esq.; and ¼ M. further, on r. Cefn Mabley, J. Kemeys Tynte, Esq.

Cardiff, the Cardiff Canal, which connects at that Town, by the Taff R. with the Severn: its Course is along by the Taff to Merthyr Tydvil, famous for its very extensive Iron Works; and a Branch also extends to the Aberdau Works. Its ancient Castle is nearly demolished: during the Troubles of Charles I. in 1645, it was in possession of the Royalists, but was soon after surrendered to the Parliament Forces; after which it was a royal Garrison. In the Tower of this Castle, Robert Duke of Normandy, Brother to William Rufus, and Henry I. was confined for upwards of 20 Years.—At Cardiff, the Earl of Dumfries.

Neath, the Neath Canal: it is united with the Neath R. (S. of the Town), which connects it with Swansea Bay; its Course North is close by the Neath R. and extends to Aberdulais. There is a Branch of some Length, West of the Taff. Neath has two extensive Copper Works, and some Iron Forges; and the Coal Pits in the Neighbourhood are the Means of a considerable Trade to Bristol and London, the River Neath being navigable for coasting Vessels. About ½ M. from the Town, on the western Side of the River, are the picturesque Remains of the Abbey founded by Richard de Granville and his Wife, for Cistertian Monks: in this Abbey Edward II. took Refuge till he was taken by the Earl of Leicester in 1326. It is a corporate Town, and is governed by a Portreeve, 12 Aldermen, a Recorder, and capital Burgesses.

1 M. on r. of Neath is Court Herbert, — Williams, Esq.; and about 4 M. up the R. Neath is Melincourt, a famous Waterfall.

A little beyond Llansamlet, on r. Birch Grove, late — Holbroke, Esq.

At Morriston, on the r. is Clasemont, J. Morris, Esq.

Swansea: the Town, built on a semicircular rising Bank, is near a Mile and a Half in Length; the Houses are modern and commodious, and the Streets are well paved. It has a Custom House. The Remains of its ancient Castle are converted into a Gaol and a Workhouse. Half a Mile from the Town, on the Beach, stands the Bathing House; there are also cold and hot Sea-water Baths near the Pottery on the Strand. The Trade of this Town is considerably improved by means of the Swansea Canal, which, uniting with the R. Taff, close to the Town, is connected with Swansea Harbour, and goes from thence by the Side of the Taff to Hen-noyadd. There is a Pottery here upon Mr. Wedgewood's Plan; an Iron Foundery; and a good dry Dock. It has a considerable Trade in the Export of Stone, Coal, Iron Ore, and Limestone, all found on the Banks of the Taff: there are also seven large Copper Houses some Distance from the Town, smelting annually 45,000 Tons of Metal, and consuming 70,000 Chaldrons of Coal. Swansea is governed by a Portreeve, 12 Aldermen, 2 Chamberlains, and a limited Number of Burgesses.

Forest Bank, on r. of, is Forest Hall, Arthur Davis, Esq.

Caermarthen is a Place of great Antiquity, being the Maridunum of Ptolemy: it was once fortified with Walls and a strong Castle, Part of the Gate now only remaining; and the County Gaol occupies its Site, handsomely built of hewn Stone. The Church is a very large Building, which, with the Churchyard, is surrounded by a Wall. On the east End of Priory Street are the Ruins of a Priory, founded in 1148. It was first erected into a Borough by Henry VIII. and sends one Member to Parliament; and James I. granted it a Charter of Incorporation as a Town and County of itself, with Power to make Bye-laws: it is governed by a Mayor, 6 Justices, &c. The Prince of Wales has here his Exchequer and Chancery for South Wales. There are several Iron and Tin Mines in the Neighbourhood, and at the Entrance of Caermarthen are Iron and Tin Mills belonging to John Morgan, Esq.; and the Smelting House belonging to Lord Cawdor.

1 M. from Caermarthen, on r. is Job's Well, David Edwardes, Esq.

Near Cheltenham, at Southam, a Seat of the ancient Family of Delabere.

Cheltenham has of late Years greatly increased in its Number of Buildings, and is become a Place of the most fashionable Resort, on account of its Waters; they are impregnated with Salts, Sulphur, Steel, and calcareous Earth; and operate both as a Purgative and Restorative. The Season for drinking them is from May to October. Its Church is a venerable Gothic Structure, and the Churchyard is said to be the most commodious in England, being 300 Feet in Length, with double Rows of Lime-trees: through this Walk you pass to the Spa:—the Pump appears under a Dome, on the Left of which is the Breakfasting-room, and which is occasionally converted into a Ball-room.

½ M. west of Cheltenham, on an Eminence, is a Seat of the late Earl Fauconberg; near which is a Spring, discovered by His present Majesty, of the same Kind of Water as the celebrated Spa, but of a stronger Nature.

Gloucester, near, Margaret and Maudlin Hospital, founded by James I.

Gloucester; its Cathedral is a very magnificent Specimen of Gothic Architecture: this Fabric, as it now appears, is 420 Feet in Length, and 144 in Width: from the Centre of the Building rises a majestic Tower, 198 Feet in Height, surmounted by two beautifully pierced Pinnacles, of 24 Feet in Height. The Interior of the Cathedral bears a solemn and impressive Aspect; the Choir is very lofty, and in a narrow Passage over it is a remarkable Echo, somewhat resembling that of the Whispering Gallery of St. Paul's, London. The City has three large Suburbs, and its Boundaries are nearly 3 Miles in Extent. Besides its Cathedral it has five Parish Churches, two Grammar Schools, two commodious Market Houses, an elegant Theatre, a Custom House, and a County Gaol built after the Plan of Mr. Howard.

Stratford on Avon:—This Town is particularly celebrated as the Birthplace of Shakspeare, who died in 1616, and has a neat Monument in the Church. The noted Mulberry-tree which grew in the Gardens of the Author was destroyed by a Successor, and sold to a Carpenter, who ingeniously worked it into various Ornaments and Trinkets. Here in September 1769 was the first Commemoration of Shakspeare's Jubilee, when an Amphitheatre was erected on the Plan of Ranelagh, for the Reception of its Visitors. It lasted three Days, during which Time every Species of Entertainment was exhibited; such as Concerts, Oratorios, Pageants, Fireworks, Illuminations, &c. In the Guildhall is a large Room, called Shakspeare's Hall, in which are two excellent Paintings of Shakspeare and Garrick. The Church is a noble Building, with a lofty Spire.

The Stratford on Avon Canal commences at the Town of Stratford; has a Branch about 4 M. from it, which goes to Benton, passes near Henley in Arden, to Lapworth, where a Cut unites it with the Birmingham Navigations; thence to Hockley (where a Branch goes to Tamworth) and King's Norton, where it unites with the Worcester and Birmingham Canal.

Birmingham is famous for its Manufacture of Hardware, plated Articles, Trinkets, and Jewellery, which sell unrivalled in all the Markets of the World; as well as Fire Arms: as many as 59,234 Hands are returned as being employed in Trade or Manufactures. This Town is not incorporated, and is only governed by two Constables and two Bailiffs; it has an elegant new Theatre, &c.

Birmingham Canal. This Navigation commences at the Town of Birmingham; its Course from thence is by Smithwick, Oldbury (near which it has a Branch to Wednesbury), Tipton Green (where it is joined by the Old Dudley Extension), Bilston, near to Wolverhampton (where it unites with the Wyrley and Essington Canal), to Atherley, at which Place it joins the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal. Length of the direct Line 22¾ M.; Branches, 5¼ M.

1½ M. from Birmingham, on r. Francis Egginton, Esq.

Soho. Here are the famous Works belonging to Mr. Bolton, forming one of the most extensive Manufactories in the Kingdom, as well for the Number of Hands it employs, as for the Variety of Articles it produces. It consists of four Squares, with connecting Ranges of Shops, like Streets, capable of employing 1000 Workmen, in all the Varieties of the Button, Buckle, plated or Argent Molu, Steel, and Trinket Manufactory.

Ashford, on r. — Green, Esq.; on l. is Ashford Hall, G. C. Ricketts, Esq.

Ludlow, entering, on l. Ludford Park, N. L. Charlton, Esq.

Ludlow is a very ancient Town, sends two Members to Parliament, and is governed by 2 Bailiffs (who are the returning Officers), 12 Aldermen, and 24 Common Councilmen. The Church is a fine venerable Structure, built of Stone; it is in the Gothic Style, with large and lofty Windows of painted Glass, and has a high Spire with 8 Bells, and a handsome Organ, the Gift of William Henry, Earl of Powis; and a Number of antique Monuments and Inscriptions, particularly one relating to Prince Arthur, Brother to Henry VIII. whose Bowels were deposited here. Its ancient Castle, standing at the west End of the Town, is supposed to have been built by Roger de Montgomery, Earl of Shrewsbury, in the Reign of Henry I.; but he rebelling against his Sovereign, it was forfeited to the Crown. Various Possessors appear to have held and been deprived of Ludlow Castle, till the Reign of Henry VI. when Rich. Plantagenet, Duke of York, here set up his Standard; but being killed at the Battle of Wakefield, it was seized by the King's Forces, and dismantled. Soon after this his Son Edward got Possession of it, and restored the Fortress. Milton's Masque of Comus was first performed here during the Earl of Bridgewater's Presidency, principally by His Lordship's Sons and Daughters: but all the once royal Apartments and Rooms of State now lie open, the whole being completely ruinous, and covered with Ivy. Its Situation is beautiful, and the Battlements are of great Height and Thickness, with Towers at convenient Distances.

At the Vinals, near Ludlow, is seen a most beautiful Prospect.

About 5 M. on l. of Ludlow is Downton Castle, the noble Mansion and fine Walks of Rich. Payne Knight, Esq.

2 M. from Ludlow, to the l. on the Banks of the Teme River, is Oakly Park, Dowager Lady Clive.

Onibury, on the l. is Stone House, the Hon. Mrs. Walpole; beyond which is Fern Hall, Hurt Sitwell, Esq.

Newton Green, ½ M. on the l. is Sibdon Castle, J. Fleming Baxter, Esq.

Red House, 1 M. on l. is Walcot House, Earl of Powis; 1 M. on r. is Plowden Hall, Edmund Plowden, Esq.: about 1 M. from Red House, on r. is Totterton, Rev. John Bright Betton Bright.

Court House, on l. is Mellington, Col. Browne.

Montgomery, near, on the r. is Lymore Lodge, Earl of Powis.

Montgomery is situated within two Miles of the Severn, and was formerly surrounded with Walls. The Castle stands on an Eminence north of the Town, and appears to have been a very stately Building; little of it now remains. On a Hill near the Castle is a stupendous British Post; the Approach is guarded by four great Ditches, having two or three Entrances toward the principal Work.

Kidderminster, within 1 M. is Commerton, Jas. Hooman, Esq.; near which is Park Hall, Jacob Turner, Esq.

Kidderminster is governed by a Recorder and 2 Magistrates, called the Bailiff and Justices: the Bailiff, who is one of the Quorum, is annually elected by his brother Aldermen, 12 in Number, with the Concurrence of the 25 Common Councilmen. It has a good Grammar School, free for all the Inhabitants of the Town. The Church is a venerable Gothic Structure, and the Town Hall is large and commodious. The Scotch and flat Carpet, known by the Name of Kidderminster, is the principal Manufacture, and was introduced here about 1735.

Alam Bridge, beyond, on r. is Coton Hall, Col. Gatacre.

Quat, 1 M. beyond, on l. is Dudmaston Hall, William Whitmore, Esq.

Bridgenorth, near, on l. is St. James's, John Stanier, Esq.

On r. of Bridgenorth are Stanley Hall, Sir Frederick Jones, Bart; and Gatacre Park, Thomas Gatacre, Esq.

Bridgenorth is a Place of great Trade in the Manufacture of Cloth, Stockings, Iron Tools, &c. The Hill on which the upper Part of the Town stands rises 60 Yards above the Bed of the River; many of the Houses are founded upon the Rock, and most of the Cellars are Caves hewn out of it: on the Roofs of the Caves are Gardens with Footpaths over them, so that Persons may walk over the Tops of several of the Houses without Danger; and there is a curious Walk made from the high Part of the Town to the Bridge, being a hollow Way hewn 20 Feet through the Depth of the Rock. The Town is governed by 2 Bailiffs, 24 Aldermen, 48 Common Councilmen, a Recorder, Town Clerk, &c.

The Duke of Bridgewater's Canal begins in the Township of Salford adjoining Manchester, and unites with the River Mersey at Runcorn Gap. Its Course from Manchester is by Stretford, Altrincham, Goppenhall, Daresbury, and Preston on the Hill: here it is joined by the Trent and Mersey Canal, and proceeds to Lower Runcorn, where it falls 84 Feet to the Mersey by 10 Locks. Its Line to Worseley Mill and Leigh departs from the main Line above described, near to Stretford, about 3 M. from Manchester; from thence it goes to the Irwell, and by a noble Aqueduct is carried over that River, and passes to Worseley Mill, which completes His Grace's original Plan; the Extension from Worseley to Leigh being of late Date, and on which no additional Tonnage is charged. Whole Length of the Navigation, including the Extension to Leigh, 36 M. all upon a Level; in addition to which there are about 16 M. of Canal underground, within the Mountain at Worseley.

On the r. of Warrington is Bank Hall, Thomas Patten, Esq.

The Sankey Navigation is from the River Mersey, a little South of Sankey Bridges, where it locks into that River; in its Course from thence it passes near Little Sankey, and by the Side of the Sankey River, which is used as a Feeder to the Canal, and terminates at St. Hellen. This Canal was the first executed in the Kingdom.

Burgesses, Town Clerk, &c. In this Town are some extensive Silk Mills, upon a most ingenious Plan, the first of which was erected from a Model brought from Italy. In this Machine are nearly 100,000 Movements put into Action by a single Wheel, any one of which may be stopped at Pleasure. Every Time this Wheel goes round, which is three Times in a Minute, the Machine works 73,728 Yards of Silk. Derby has also a very extensive Manufactory of Porcelain; and a Number of Persons are here employed in turning Vases, Urns, and various Chimney Ornaments, &c. of Marble, Spar, and Petrifications, which abound in this Vicinity. The Church of All Saints is a new Building, enriched with a beautiful Gothic Tower, 173 Feet high, and seen at a great Distance.

The Manchester and Ashton under Lyne Canal commences at Manchester and goes to Clayton, and thence to Fairfield, where it divides into two Branches, one to Ashton under Lyne (where it connects with the Huddersfield and Peak Forest Canals), and the other to the Aqueduct near Waterhouses: it here divides again into two more Branches; one goes to Fairbottom, the other to Hollinwood, the latter called the Werneth Branch.—At Clayton, as above, there is also a Branch which goes to Heaton Norris, near Stockport. The Length of this Canal, including its several Branches, is upwards of 17 M. upon which there are 25 Locks.

Manchester is not an incorporated Town, and is governed only as a Manor, by Courts Leet and Baron. It has a collegiate Church, which is a handsome Gothic Structure, ornamented with some beautiful Sculpture. The Tabernacle Work is very curious, and it has a large and powerful Organ. The collegiate Body consists of a Warden, 4 Fellows, 2 Chaplains, 2 Clerks, 4 Choristers, and 4 Singing-men. Besides the collegiate Church it has ten others; also an Hospital, free School, and Library, each of them well endowed. The Theatre is a very neat Building: the Gentleman's Concert Room is elegant and capacious, and will accommodate 1200 Persons: there are also new and commodious Assembly Rooms. Manufactures of the greatest Extent are carried on in Manchester and its Neighbourhood, but the most important Branch is in the Cotton Trade. It is also noted for its Velverets and Checks, Tapes, Laces, Gartering, &c. The Town is well paved and lighted, and is supplied with Water, after the Manner of London, by means of underground Pipes.

The Bolton and Bury Canal commences at Manchester, runs some Way close to the River Irwell, crosses it near Clifton, and then passes by its Side to Bolton, crossing the River Roch in its Way, from whence a Branch goes to Bury.

Lancaster is seated on the R. Loyne, which forms a Harbour of moderate Size: the Merchant Shipping is chiefly employed in the West India, American, and Baltic Trades: it has a long fine Quay, on which is a Suite of noble Warehouses. The Church is a handsome Gothic Structure. The Town Hall and Exchange is a good Building, and has a noble Portico. The Castle is said by some to have been built in the Time of Adrian; but the present Structure was erected in the Time of Edward III. On the Top is a large square Tower, called John of Gaunt's Chair, whence is a most extensive Prospect. In this Castle the Assizes are held, and it is the County Gaol.

5 M. N. E. of Lancaster is a remarkable Cavern, called Dunald Mill Hole; a large Brook runs in at its Mouth by several beautiful Cascades, whence continuing its Course for two Miles under a large Mountain, it makes its Appearance again at Carnforth.

About 1 M. from Lancaster, on r. is Beamont Hall, E. F. Buckley, Esq.; beyond which is Halton Hall, W. B. Bradshaw, Esq.

Between Bolton and Carnforth is a fine View over the Lancaster Sands.

About 2 M. beyond Carnforth, on r. are the Ruins of Borwick Hall.

Penrith was originally claimed by and belonged to the Scots; but being disputed by the English, it was twice burnt in the Reigns of Edward III. and Rich. II. Its Church is a large handsome Structure, and it has a good Free School and Charity School. On the North Bank of the R. Emont are two Caves or Grottos, dug out of the solid Rock, and very extensive: the Passage to them is narrow and dangerous, and it is supposed they were intended as a Place of Safety during the Incursions of the Scots. (See p. 358.)

Penrith, about 4 M. on the l. is Graystock Castle, Duke of Norfolk.

High Hesket, about 2 M. on the r. is Armathwaite Castle, William Milburn, Esq.; and on l. is Petteril Bank, late Robert Collins, Esq.

Low Hesket, about 1 M. on l. is Low House, J. Graham, Esq.

Carlisle is a Bishop's See, and was formerly Part of the Diocese of Durham, but made a distinct Bishopric by Henry I. Being a Frontier Town, it is fortified with a Wall, a Citadel, and a Castle. The Wall was first built by Egfrid, King of Northumberland, in the 7th Century; and the Citadel and Castle by William Rufus. The Wall has three Gates or Entrances into the City: the English Gate to the South; the Scotch Gate to the North; and the Irish Gate to the West. The Picts Wall, which was built across the Country from Newcastle, terminates near this Place. It was once strongly fortified, but its Castle and Walls are now in a State of Decay. It was taken by the Rebels in 1745, but retaken three Weeks afterwards by the Duke of Cumberland: in it the unfortunate Mary Queen of Scots was confined. Principal Manufactures, Cotton Yarn, Cotton and Linen Checks, printed Cottons, Osnaburghs, Drills, Worsted Shags, tanned Leather, &c. &c.

1 M. beyond Great Ponton, see on r. at Little Ponton, Mrs. Pennyman.

Grantham is a Borough Town. The Church is an elegant Stone Structure; its lofty Spire, 82 Yards high, was much injured by a Storm in 1797: its Interior is very handsome. In this Church is a beautiful Monument for Sir Dudley Ryder, Lord Chief Justice of the King's Bench, who died 1756. The Borough is governed by an Alderman, Recorder, 12 common Burgesses, a Coroner, an Escheator, 12 Second Men, who are the Common Council, and 6 Constables to attend the Court.

Beyond Grantham, on r. is Belton, Lord Brownlow; a little further, on a Hill, Syston Park, Sir John Thorold, Bart.

Gunnerby Hill, from, is a fine Prospect, on r. Lincoln Minster, on l. Belvoir Castle, Duke of Rutland.

Long Bennington, on l. is Staunton Hall, Rev. Dr. Staunton. When the King honours Belvoir Castle with his Presence, it is the Custom for the Head of this Family to present to the Sovereign the Key of Staunton Tower, in that ancient Castle; which was done by the above Gentleman when the Prince Regent visited the Duke of Rutland, in January 1814.

Newark: this Town was incorporated by Charles II. in Gratitude for its Loyalty to his Father, who granted it the Privilege of sending Members to Parliament. It is governed by a Mayor and 12 Aldermen. The Town Hall is a magnificent Stone Building. The Church, esteemed one of the finest in the Kingdom, was erected by Henry IV. Of its ancient Castle, built in the Reign of King Stephen, there now remain only some of the Walls, of great Thickness and Height. The Town is neat, and many of the Buildings are new; and the Market-place, though not spacious, is extremely handsome. In consequence of the many Inundations from the River, which often rendered the Town impassable, a new Turnpike Road was made about the Year 1770, and raised so high upon Arches, as to be passed with Safety in the greatest Floods: it was constructed under the Direction of Mr. Smeaton; and near the Town there is a Bridge, for the same Purpose, made mostly upon dry Land.

Kelham, on l. is Kelham Hall, J. M. Sutton, Esq.

Caunton, about 1 M. beyond, on l. is Beesthorpe, Thos. Bristow, Esq.

At Wellow, Wellow Park, late Sir Fras. Molyneux, Bart.; and about 1 M. on l. Rufford, Hon. Lumley Saville.

Ollerton, on the l. of, at Edwinstow, are Seats of Rev. J. Lumley, Major Boothby, and Dr. Oakes; and between Ollerton and Worksop, on r. are Thoresby Park, Earl Manvers, and Clumber House and Park, the fine Seat of the Duke of Newcastle: on l. Coch Glode, Governor Mills; Welbeck Abbey, Duke of Portland; and Worksop Manor, Duke of Norfolk.

At Loversall, on r. — Dawson, Esq.

Doncaster is seated on the River Don, over which it has two Bridges, and whence it takes its Name. The Parish Church is a very ancient Structure; its Steeple is a Piece of excellent Workmanship: in the Church is an Epitaph dated 1597, to the Memory of one Robert Byrks, who gave Rossington Wood to the Poor of the Parish. Its Castle, together with the whole Town, was destroyed by Fire in 759; the former was never afterwards rebuilt. In the Reign of Henry III. a Convent was founded here, and an Hospital for Lepers. The Situation of the Town is remarkably pleasant. The Mansion House of Doncaster is a very spacious Stone Building. It has a handsome Theatre and Town Hall; also a free Grammar School, Alms House, and a public Dispensary. At the north End of Freres Bridge was a House of White Friars, and near it, another of Grey Friars. The Remains of a Roman Highway are still visible here. The Town is governed by a Mayor, Recorder, and Common Council, and formerly sent Members to Parliament. Its chief Manufacture is that of spinning Wool and Cotton.

On r. of Doncaster is a Seat of G. Cooke, Esq.

1½ M. on l. of Doncaster, at Cusworth, William Wrightson, Esq.; 1 M. further, Woodlands Hall, C. Waterton, Esq.

2 M. on r. of Doncaster is Wheatley, Sir George Cooke, Bart.

Robin Hood's Well, within ½ M. of, on r. is Skellow Grange, G. Higgins, Esq.

On the l. of Robin Hood's Well is Skelbrook Park, Dawson Humble, Esq.; and on r. is a Summer House, late Bacon Franks, Esq.; and about 2 M. on r. near Campsal, at Auston, a Seat of Colonel Cooke.

Near 2 M. on r. of Robin Hood's Well are Campsmount, Mrs. Yarborough; and Campsal, late Bacon Franks, Esq.

Went Bridge, between it and Darrington, on r. Stapleford Park, G. L. Hodgson, Esq.

Darrington, on l. — Oliver, Esq.

1 M. from Darrington, on r. is Grove Hall, William Lee, Esq.

Brotherton, on r. of, is Byram, Sir John Ramsden, Bart.

About 1 M. beyond Brotherton, on l. is Water Fryston, Robert Milnes, Esq.

Fairburn, 2 M. beyond, on l. is Ledston Hall and Park, an ancient Seat of the Earls of Huntingdon.

Abberford, near, on l. is Parlington, Robert O Gascoigne, Esq.

At the Town of Abberford are the Ruins of an ancient Castle, built soon after the Conquest.

Bramham, near, on l. are Bramham Park, — Fox, Esq; and Bramham Biggin, Lord Headley.

Wetherby, near, on the r. is Wetherby Grange, B. Thompson, Esq.

The Town of Wetherby is situated on the Banks of the River Wharfe, over which it has a handsome Bridge.

Walshford, near, on l. is Ribston Hall, Sir Henry Goodricke, Bart.

3 M. beyond Walshford, on r. is Allerton Park, Lord Stourton.

built: in the Centre of the Town is a Cross or Obelisk, 12 Feet high. Many Roman Coins have been found in this Place, and in a Field near the Bridge are four large Stones, called the Devil's Arrows, supposed to have been placed there by the Romans to mark the Roads. It is a Corporation, and sends 2 Members to Parliament. In this Neighbourhood was fought a bloody Battle in the Reign of Edward III. in 1332, in which the Earl of Lancaster was taken Prisoner, and afterwards executed with several other Nobles.

Leeming, 1½ M. beyond, on r. Leases Hall, Mrs. Ardens; and about 4 M. from Leeming, on l. Hornby Castle, Duke of Leeds.

Catterick is a Place of great Antiquity, and was burned in 769 by Eanred, King of Northumberland: its ancient Name, Catturacton, seems to have been derived from a Cataract or Waterfall; near it is the River Swale, over which it has a Bridge, where also one of the Roman Roads crosses the River: on its Banks are still the Foundations of an ancient Castle, and many Roman Coins and Urns have been dug up here.

On the l. of Catterick is Brough Hall, late Sir John Lawson, Bart.

The Three Tuns, on the l. of, are Ask Hall, Lord Dundas; and Gilling Hall, Lady Wharton; and about 1 M. beyond The Three Tuns, on l. is Sedbury House, Sir Robert D'Arcy Hildyard, Bart.

Greta Bridge, beyond, on the r. is Rokeby Park, J. Bacon Sawrey Morritt, Esq.

Brough is situated about 2 M. from the River Eden; it has a neat Church a little Way from the Town, the Pulpit of which is cut out of one entire Stone: near the Church, on a Hill, are the Ruins of an ancient Castle, belonging to the Earl of Thanet; Part of the Tower was standing till 1792, when it mostly fell down; on digging near the Ruins an Urn full of Roman Coins was found, from which it appears to have been built in the Time of the Romans. On the Left of the Castle the Prospect is closed by a Range of craggy Mountains, over the Tops of which Shrubs and Trees are promiscuously scattered: to the r. is an extensive fertile Plain; and behind, the lofty Promontory of Wildmore Fell lifts its Brow, and terminates the Prospect.

Appleby is almost surrounded by the River Eden: it was a Roman Station called Aballaba, and had a military Way crossing the Country here. The Assizes are held in the Town Hall, and the Judges lodge in the Castle, an ancient Building at the End of the principal Street, belonging to the Earl of Thanet. It is a Borough Town, and sends 2 Members to Parliament; and is governed by a Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council: besides its Church, an old Building which stands at the End of the Town, there is another in Bongate. It has a Gaol, Town Hall, Charity School, Free School (endowed with a Salary of 120*l.* a Year), and an Hospital for a Governess and twelve Widows, commonly called the Mother and twelve Sisters. This Town was taken by Surprise by William King of Scotland, but recovered by King John; and Henry II. granted it Privileges equal to the City of York: in the Reigns of Henry II. and Richard II. it was set on Fire by the Scots; and in 1598 it suffered greatly by Pestilence, since which Time it has never recovered its original Extent.

At Appleby, Earl of Thanet, and Rev. John Moore.

Temple Sowerby, on the r. of, is Acorn Bank, R. Hodgson Edmenson, Esq.

Lowther Bridge, on the r. is Brougham Hall, H. Brougham, Esq.

Emont Bridge, on the r. of, is Carlton Hall, Right Hon. Thomas Wallace; on the l. is Skirsgill House, H. Parkyn, Esq.

Penrith: this Town suffered greatly by the Plague in 1380 and in 1598; of which it is recorded on the Vestry Wall that 2260 People died. (See p. 337.)

Penrith, about 4 M. on the l. is Graystock Castle, Duke of Norfolk.

The Leeds and Liverpool Canal.—The Navigation under this Title is from the Town of Leeds to Liverpool, forming a Line of Canal, when completed, of 129 M. Its first Act was obtained in the Year 1770, and after executing a very considerable Portion, on the Yorkshire and on the Lancashire Sides, an Act was obtained, in 1790, for varying the Remainder of the Line; and a third Act was passed in 1794, again to vary the Line from near Colne to Wigan: this Part of the Canal is called the Deviation Line, the whole of which is not yet completed. The Part from Liverpool to Newborough is called the Lancashire Side; and from Newborough to Wigan (a Distance of 7 M.), the Upper Douglas Navigation. From Leeds to near Colne is called the Yorkshire Side of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, which commences at Leeds, and passes on the south Side of the River Aire, by Calverley and Idle to Shipley (where it is joined by the Bradford Canal, which comes from the Town of Bradford, and is about 3 M. in Length), and at about 1 M. it crosses the Aire and goes by its Side as far as Gargrave, passing by Bingley, near to Keighley, through Kildwick and Skipton to Gargrave, and thence by Church Marton and Thornton, to its Summit at the Village of Foulridge, where it passes underground 1630 Yards, by a Tunnel, which is 18 Feet high and 17 Feet wide: from hence it goes to Great Marsden, near Colne, which completes that Part of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal called the Yorkshire Side. Here commences the Deviation Line, and its Course is by the Market Towns of Burnley, Blackburn, and Chorley, to Wigan, and thence to Newborough: at this Place commences the Division of the Canal called the Lancashire Side, which proceeds to Brier's Mill (where a Cut is made from it, called the Lower Douglas Navigation, of about 5 M. in Length), and from thence it goes to Halsall, about 3 M. N. of Ormskirk, and by Maghall, &c. to Liverpool. Lengths —Yorkshire Side, 45 M.; Deviation Line, 49; Upper Douglas, 7; Lancashire Side, 28.

GREAT AND DIRECT ROADS measured from SHOREDITCH CHURCH.

The Measurement as far as the Wheatsheaf Inn at Alconbury Hull (see p. 344) is reckoned from Hicks's Hall Standard, as well as from the Shoreditch Church Standard; the first going by Barnet, and described in Pages 343, 344; the latter as follows, by Ware, which is 4 M. 1 F. nearer than the Barnet Road; on which Account (as the Milestones after Alconbury Hill reckon from Hicks's Hall Standard) the Distances marked on this Road will no longer correspond with the Milestones; and all Roads given as Branches from the Road we are now about to describe, will consequently be much nearer than if taken from Hicks's Hall Standard.

On the l. of Huntingdon are Hinchinbrook House, Earl of Sandwich; and The Views, George Sharpe, Esq.

Huntingdon is situated near the River Ouse, over which it has a good Freestone Bridge, of six Arches. From its ancient convenient Neighbourhood for Hunting, it is supposed to have derived its Name——Hunton Down; and was originally built on a Spot that was an entire Forest. Near the Church of St. Mary was anciently a Priory of Black Canons. On an Eminence near the Town stood a Castle, erected by Edward the Elder, and enlarged by David the First of Scotland, Earl of Huntingdon. The Town is recorded to have formerly had fifteen Parish Churches, but now there are only two, in one of which is an ancient Steeple. It now chiefly consists of one principal Street, and is well paved, and lighted during the Winter. The Town Hall, in which the Assizes are held, is a commodious and neat Building, standing on one Side of a large Square. Here is also a good Free and Grammar School. The Ouse being navigable to Bedford, it derives a great Advantage in its Supply of Coals, &c. from Lynn by Barges. Huntingdon is governed by a Mayor, 12 Aldermen, and a Common Council, and sends 2 Members to Parliament.

About ¼ M. on l. of South Otterington is Newby Wiske, William Revely, Esq.

Between South and North Otterington, on l. is Sobergate, Robt. Hutton, Esq.

North Allerton consists principally of one Street, of about ½ a Mile long. The Church is a Gothic Structure, built in the Form of a Cross, and contains several handsome Monuments. Among the other Improvements of the Town is a new Prison, erected on Mr. Howard's Plan; it consists of 30 Cells, with 4 strong ones for capital Offenders; and a Place for Correction and Labour. Here formerly was an ancient Castle, which was much enlarged by Bishop Pudsey; but was seized and destroyed by Henry II. A small Convent for Monks, of the Cistertian Order, was founded here by Edward I. but no Remains are extant. The whole of the Manor has been subject to the Bishop of Durham from the Time of William Rufus. He appoints a Bailiff for Life, who presides at the Election for Members of Parliament, who are chosen by the whole of the Housekeepers that pay Scot and Lot. Near this Place was fought the celebrated Battle between the English and Scots, called the Battle of the Standard, in 1138: the Spot where it was fought retains the Name of Standard Hill; and some Caverns near it are supposed to have been the Places where the Scots were buried.

Durham: this City is supposed to have been first built in 995; it is nearly surrounded by the River Wear, and is about a Mile square. The Cathedral and Castle stand upon an Eminence, inclosed by the Remains of the old City Walls. The Situation of the Cathedral is extremely grand, the Building stretching along the Crown of an Eminence 80 Feet perpendicular from the Surface of the River which washes its Base: before it is a large open Area, called the Palace Green, on the north Side of which stands the Castle, first erected by William the Conqueror; it formerly contained four Tiers of Apartments, but nothing now remains except the Mount Vaults, and Part of the Shell. In a deep Vale near the River are the Rémains of Finchall Abbey, founded in 1196 for Benedictine Monks. At Durham is the Palace of the Bishop of the Diocese.

Newcastle: this Place has long been noted for its Glass Works, particularly in the finer Sort; and in the Coal Trade it is the first Port in the World, and has sometimes exported to foreign Parts and coastwise, upwards of 600,000 Chaldrons in a Year. It contains 4 Churches; and that of St. Nicholas, the Mother Church, is a most curious Fabric, erected by David King of Scotland. The Bridge over the Tyne, built about 1775, consists of 9 large elliptic Arches, and supports a Street of Houses. It is governed by a Mayor, Sheriff, and 12 Aldermen, and has sent Members to Parliament ever since the Reign of Edward I.

York: this is the only City in England whose chief Magistrate is honoured with the Title of Lord, except London. It is a County of itself; and the Government of the City is vested in the Lord Mayor, a Recorder, 12 Aldermen, 2 Sheriffs, 8 Chamberlains, 24 Common Councilmen, 22 Assistants, a Town Clerk, and other inferior Officers. There are 23 Parish Churches, besides the Minster or Cathedral: this stately Structure is the largest Gothic Church in England, being in Length 524 Feet; the Breadth of the cross Aisle, 222; the Height of the Lantern, 180; the Breadth of the west Front, 109; and the east, 105. The Castle, originally built by Richard III. is used as a Prison: the Castle Walls are 1103 Yards in Circumference: adjoining the Castle is a high Mound, on which stands the Shell of a Tower called Clifford's Tower, formerly mounted with Cannon and a Garrison. York sends two Members to Parliament.

Lincoln is a very ancient City, and was formerly surrounded with Walls, and defended by Towers: the north Roman Gate of the City, called Newport Gate, still remains, and is one of the noblest Remnants of Roman Architecture left in Britain. Lincoln was erected into a Bishopric in the Year 1088: the Cathedral is a magnificent Fabric, situated on the Edge of a steep Hill, and is seen through five or six of the adjoining Counties: its Length from East to West is 530 Feet: there is a fine Painting over the Communion Table, by the Rev. Mr. Peters; and the great east Window was fitted up with painted Glass by Peckitt of York in 1762. In the north Tower, over the western Front, is the famous Bell called Great Tom of Lincoln; it weighs 96 cwt. 3 qrs. 18 lb. and will hold 424 Gallons Ale Measure: the Circumference is 22 Feet, 8 Inches: on account of its great Weight it has not been rung for several Years. Lincoln is governed by a Mayor, 12 Aldermen, 2 Sheriffs, a Recorder, 4 Chamberlains, a Sword Bearer, a Coroner, and 48 Common Councilmen: it has sent 2 Members to Parliament from the 29th of Henry III.

Whitby, near, see Lark Hall, — Peters, Esq.

Whitby is a Town of high Antiquity, and carries on a great Trade in Coals. The Houses are strongly built of Stone, and it has a convenient Custom-house. This Town has suffered much from the Ocean, particularly in 1807, when a strong new-built Quay, supporting a Pile of Buildings 80 Feet above the Level of the Sea, was destroyed.

At Whitby, the Castle, the Residence of Chas. Cholmeley, Esq.

About 3 M. on l. of Whitby is Mulgrave Castle, Earl of Mulgrave.

* Part of this Road, although considered the direct Route from Oxford to Cambridge, viz. from Tring to Baldock, (agreeably to the Return of the Postmasters) is so extremely bad in the Winter Season, as to be almost impassable. We have therefore thought it necessary to give another Road, which we believe will not be liable to the Objection of the preceding one.—The Traveller in a Chaise must take the Road from Tring to Dunstable by Berkhampstead, a Distance of 15½ M. instead of by The Folly, as above.
